ORDER

This matter is before the court sua sponte. On August 2, 2016, Defendant appeared before the court for resentencing following Defendant's successful collateral attack of his December 11, 2001 Judgment ("Judgment") pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255. During the hearing, Defense counsel orally moved for the suspension of the balance of the $14,000 fine imposed during Defendant's original sentencing, see Judgment at 5 [DE 12], and the court allowed the motion. In announcing Defendant's sentence, however, the court erroneously stated the fine was waived – an error repeated by the court in the amended judgment. Accordingly, the court finds that amending the amended judgment is necessary to correct a clerical error. See FED. R. CRIM. P. 36.

For the foregoing reasons, the Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to amend the Amended Judgment [DE 62] to reflect that the balance of the $14,000 fine is suspended.

SO ORDERED.

This the 4th day of August, 2016.

JAMES C. FOX
Senior United States District Judge
